DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to the amendment filed on October 22, 2007, in which claims 2, 4-13, 16-36, 38-40, 46—54 and 56-61 are presented for further examination.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

2. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on October 22, 2007 has been entered.

Specification

3. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: Applicant fails to provide antecedent basis for the claim terminology “computer readable medium”.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

5. Claims 2, 4-13, 16-36, 38-40, 46-54 and 56-61 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The applicant failed to provide antecedent basis for the claim terminology "computer readable medium". Therefore, the question becomes whether non-statutory embodiments would be fairly conveyed to one of ordinary skill in the art given the terminology utilized. It would appear to be reasonable to interpret medium for "encoding one or more data structure" as fairly conveying signal and other forms of propagation or transmission media to one of ordinary skill. Therefore, claims 2, 4-13, 16-36, 38-40, 46-54 and 56-61 fail to fall within a statutory category of invention.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 2, 4-13, 16-36, 38-40, 46-54 and 56-61 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 101, set forth in this Office action.
